BYU Friends, Alumni Get For Homecoming

Brigham Young University students and alumni will commemorate the school's 94th anniversary at special Founder's Day activities Friday, Oct. 31.

On Oct. 16, 1875, the deed establishing the Brigham Young company was signed by President Amos A. Brigham, and what was to become the multi-college, 100-plus student institution of higher learning was born.

Since the first Founder's Day

Homecoming's Special Issue at Friday

Tomorrow's UNIVERSE will highlight Homecoming with a 140-page edition.

Started in Friday's issue will be a "page supplement" entitled "Homecoming, 1969."

It is inserted as part of the national straight news coverage and should be "more of an article supplement," according to UNIVERSE staffer.

The seven full-color pages, the supplement includes looks at yesterday, today, and tomorrow; a survey of BYU ball; impressions of an national student; and an view of the Homecoming staff member: "Image En's is definitely something saving because it is while for all Homecomings, just 1969. The color photography is marvelous and it should prove interesting as was celebrated in 1891, the annual affair has been expanded until it now includes open houses, a flag ceremony, the annual Founder's Day Convocation, the Founder's Day luncheon, a careers seminar, a musical variety show and a dance.

Opening event of Founder's Day will be a formal flag raising ceremony by the combined services ROTC color guard at 8 a.m. in front of the Abraham O. Smoot Administration Building.

The presentation of the Alumni Distinguished Service Awards and the Ernest L. Wilkinson Medal will highlight the Founder's Day Convocation to be held at 10 a.m. in the George Albert Smith Fieldhouse. Marion D. Hanks of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints will also deliver a special address.

Throughout the day, the BYU Alumni Association will conduct an open house in the Alumni House and will serve light refreshments. A map of the campus, a list of special areas to visit, and other general information will be passed out to visitors.

President Wilkinson will present his annual "State of the University" address at a special luncheon to be held in the Wilkinson Center Ballroom at noon.

Scheduled on the program will be a luncheon address by Vice President Robert K. Thomas, as well as President Wilkinson's speech.

Excerpts from the opera "The Prophet" by Clinton F. Larson, of the BYU English Dept. and Douglas Isaacson-Juriskowski will be presented.

TONIGHT'S CONCERT features The Cowells and The Carnival. The concert will start at 8:30 in the Smith Fieldhouse. Tickets for the event are on sale at 329 in the Wilkinson Center. Price is $1.75 for all remaining tickets; green seats are sold out.

Homecoming Activities

Concert, Turtles Headline Events

Turtle trots, a pie-eating contest, and a concert featuring The Cowells and Carnival will highlight Homecoming celebrations today.

Homecoming 1969 will really get underway tonight as the "Image of an Era" opens with the Cowells and Carnival beginning at 8:30 p.m. in the Fieldhouse, the concert will spotlight the sounds of the contemporary group Carnival. Once part of the "Brasil '66," the Carnival still leans toward the soft sounds of their original group.

The Cowells, with two gold records to their credit, first made the big-time with "The Rain, Park, and Other Things."

They are also known for their renditions of "We Can Fly," "Indian Lake," "Poor Baby," and "Hair." The show-business family appeals both to youthful listeners with their melodic sound and the over-30 generation with the "family orientation."

Following the concert there will be a pep rally between the fieldhouse and Richards Bldg. Scheduled to begin at approximately 11 p.m., the rally will feature the largest fireworks display in Utah. Participants include the Cougarettes, flag twirlers, song leaders and yell leaders.

The rally is open to the entire student body.

TURTLE TOTS

Other events throughout the day include the annual Homecoming turtle trots. The first race, beginning at 11 a.m., will be open to turtles in the housing division. Wards, stakes, elders' quorums, and other religious organizations will enter their turtles in the 1 p.m. event.

The executive division for downtown businessmen will begin at 2 p.m. The final heat for the day will begin at 2:30 p.m. for the open division. Anyone with their own turtle may enter this race.

According to John Astle, chairman of the turtle trots, applications may be picked up at the beginning of each race. Bleachers will be erected on the east and west sides of the parking lot for the spectators and cheering sections.

Trophies will be awarded to the fastest and slowest turtle in each race, the best decorated turtle, the best named turtle, and the best cheering section.

Three races will be held Friday with the campus division beginning at 11 a.m. The independent division (open to unaffiliated groups of 6 or more students) is at 1 p.m. while the sweepstakes race will begin at 2:30 p.m.

Astel said that a special sweepstakes trophy will also be awarded to the winner of the final race.

FOUNDER'S DAY

In addition to turtle trots on Friday, there will also be various other activities. Founder's Day Convocation ceremonies will highlight an address by Elder Marion D. Hanks. The assembly, which will be held in place of Thursday's devotional, begins at 10 a.m. in the Fieldhouse.

Career seminars will be held during the afternoon in the Life Science Bldg. while a rock dance will be in the West Patio from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Fieldhouse Frolics, highlighting the era of past BYU presidents, will begin at 8:15 p.m. in the Fieldhouse. Presented by the BYU Program Bureau, the Frolics are $1.50 for green seats and $1 for bleacher seating.

ERAS DEPICTED

According to Tom Parry, each of the seven Homecoming dances will be representative of a specific era. Tickets for the Eldred Center, Smith Family Living Center,

Friday Class Sets Switch

Founder's Day Convocation is scheduled for this Friday at 10 a.m. in the Fieldhouse.

All Friday 10 a.m. classes are switched to today during the regular forum assembly time at 10 a.m.

The change in classes makes it possible for all students to attend the Friday assembly.

Elder Delbert L. Stapley will preside and conduct. Elder Marion D. Hanks will present the Founder's Day message.

During the assembly, awards will be presented to alumni and friends of the university. Overflow areas with television coverage of this event will be the Joseph Smith Auditorium and the Varsity Theater. There will be no telecast in the Concert Hall.

THE MUM TRADITION continues as BYU Homecoming Queen Eileen Johnson accepts a mum from Kim Cameron, last year's at Preferred Man. The Homecoming coronation costs $1.50 and is picked-up today between 12-5 p.m. at the clock room, WC or Friday between 8-5 p.m. in the Reception Center, WC. The mum is guaranteed through Sunday meetings.

News Roundup

LONDON (AP) — A subway strike and a royal procession slowed London traffic to a crawl today.

More than a million motorists drove into town to beat a 24-hour wildcat walkout by subway guards demanding the same mileage bonus motorists get. Subway service was cut two thirds at rush hour, and the trains that ran were jammed to the doors.

BERLIN (AP) — Three young East Germans swam a cold border stream early today and made it safely to West Berlin. Police said two of the young men were 19 and the other 20. They apparently escaped the notice of East German border guards.

BEIRUT (AP) — Bazookas hit an American oil tank Monday night and shooting and bombings erupted in Beirut as Lebanese officials prepared for peace talks with Arab guerrilla leaders.

JERUSALEM (AP) — A surprisingly large number of Arabs from Old Jerusalem voted for candidates for municipal office as balloting got underway today in Israel's general election.

SAIGON (AP) — Allied forces killed nearly 100 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese in fighting across South Vietnam late Monday and early today, and U.S. B52 pounded enemy base camps along the Cambodian north of Saigon, the U.S. Command reported.

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — Laotian government forces lost another locality in central Laos Sunday night, official military sources reported today.

Bun Sang, 30 miles east of Savannakhet, was overrun by Pathet Lao and North Vietnamese troops which attacked from the east, the sources said.

The government force suffered 10 killed and 20 wounded, while 58 of the enemy were killed and about 100 wounded, sources reported.

TOKYO (AP) — Both candidates in the Nov. 11 Philippine presidential election say changes must be made in the Laurel-Langley agreement, which grants the United States economic parity in the development of national resources in the Philippines. The agreement expires in 1974.

President Ferdinand E. Marcos, the Nacionalista party candidate, said in the new issue of Asia Magazine: "There can be no question, it seems to me, of its termination. But between now and 1974 the Philippine government must begin the work of negotiations with the American government for a new trade agreement."

NATIONAL

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — A federal review board has upheld charges of racial and sexual discrimination brought against the regional U.S. Office of Economic Opportunity by a Negro woman employee.

The panel from the OEO headquarters in Washington recommended retroactive pay and promotion for HAI-NO A.M. Canry who filed a complaint Feb. 5, 1968, charging that the regional office has discriminated against her in job ratings and promotion in the three years she has worked as a management information systems specialist.

BOSTON (AP) — Construction began Monday at a Harvard Medical School on a $4 million laboratory to study the bodily processes involved in human reproduction.

The new laboratory will be the first science building added to the medical school complex since it was built in 1906. The building is to be completed in 1971.

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) — High school rules banning long hair have "no legitimate reason," says an attorney who argued a law suit brought in U.S. District Court—by a girl.

Attorney James Piazza said Monday the Colfax Community School District is keeping Susan Sims, 15, out of school because she refused to cut her hair to conform with a school rule which said that "hair must be kept one finger width above the eyebrows clear across the head."

Piazza said the rule is unconstitutional.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Gentle Ben, the lovable bear on a television network series, has been invited to sip cocktails and mix with nationally known personalities at a special fete in Fort Lauderdale.

"Dear Gentle," starts a letter of invitation from Gov. Claude Kirk, who asked him to a Nov. 5 "celebrity party" sponsored by the Florida Council of 100.

"So that you will bear-up and have a honey of a time, cocktails and fancy hors d'oeuvres will be served from 6:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m.," the governor's letter said.

STATE

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — The cost of drinking is rising again in Utah—but not for all brands.

Utah Liquor Control Commission Chairman Grove L. Cook said Monday prices on 98 items were being hiked because of increases by distillers.

He said most of the boosts would be "between a nickel and 25 cents."

Meter Maids Employed As Decoys

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — The use of meter maids as decoys has stirred a lively debate among Salt Lake City officials.

The women in blue have been taking time off from writing parking tickets to pose as women of the night in a police dragnet that has ensnared dozens of persons.

Since the beginning of October, 54 men, three women and four juveniles have been arrested and charged on sex charges, police records show.

"Police should not be using meter maids for anything but to write tickets without approval from the city commission," Mayor J. Bracken Lee said Monday.

"We don't customarily go to the commission to seek approval on how to deploy police personnel," retorted Public Safety Commissioner James L. Barker.

The director of the traffic violations bureau that controls one group of seven meter maids, Robert R. Hatfield, said, "These women were hired for only one purpose and that was to write parking tickets."

Hatfield said none of his charges had been authorized to handle other assignments.

Another group of eight meter maids is under the jurisdiction of the police department, which has announced a new policy on the matter.

Police Chief Dewey J. Fillis said, "When we use meter maids from her on they will be on an overtime basis, and will not be taken off their regular shifts."

The division of duties apparently has affected the flow of parking ticket fines into the city coffers.

Letters to the editor.

WRITES OFF

Editor,

Perhaps you should have told Mr. Miller at the Hyde Park Forum, that the reason THE DAILY UNIVERSE has to carry so much advertising is because the UNIVERSE "writes off" more uncollectable accounts than any other department in the BYU budget. Perhaps requiring payment in advance for advertising would avert this, but so far the problem remains the same.

I was proud to be a member of the photo staff of THE DAILY UNIVERSE during 1958, because the writers were so well informed that they never had to print retractions. So far, your average has been at least one per week. I have heard that the UNIVERSE contains so much mis-information that it has become known as the "Daily Farce".

M. Perry

Ed. Note: I regret publishing your letter because of the gross misinformation contained therein.

BROTHER'S KEEPER

Editor,

To Bob Swift:

You've caught the spirit of god alright. The main point of your letter was well taken. But, you haven't demonstrated a very christian attitude toward less fortunate than you (perhaps because of ignorance concerning his defects).

My sister-in-law can't "hear" without her hearing aid (perhaps because of lip-reading). I assume, though, that the answer is for every deaf person to get a hearing aid. Certainly deafness is not responsible for this ingenious use of other hearing devices. But little by little, I am in mind that deaf people carry around white crutches, braces, or wheel to let you know that the handicapped.

I once "talked" to a lady who was both deaf and blind, spelling the alphabet in her hand. She has been coming to the church after the loss of her sight and her hearing venture to say that those who didn't sit in her back room and then proceed to be lip-read the amplifiers or ceiling or the back of speaker's head. No! The way she could "hear" was someone (commonly called interpreter) spelling the words into her hands.

I have seen at get conference, and also at my stake conference, a special set up in front of the congregation for the benefit of deaf-mutes in which an interpreter translates into the deaf-mute language what the speaker saying. If we can't do that, can we, who have ears to hear give up a few front seats to deaf that they might also have chance to receive the "spiral god?"

"Am I (not) my brother's keeper?"

Karen J. Jep

P.S. To the editor, your "a" was not entirely appropriate.

Ed. Note: P.P.S. The types has capital letters.

IBM DANCE

Editor,

The Friday night Computer dance was a very success. Several of the students commented that those who attended were the looking at BYU. Since there those that for some reason did not show up, I am privileged with being able to substitute for one of delinquent male participants, sorry that I could not quantify so that I could dance all of the girls who were not there for a part selection. I met many really girls that I did not even expect. The evening mad weekend, the best they expected the next IBM Com dance to even top the success this one was.

Intellectual Life, News Discussed At Forum

Intellectual life at BYU, as reported in THE DAILY UNIVERSE and BYU's attitude toward Negroes were hotly debated at Wednesday's Hyde Free Forum.

The forum continued to be attended. There were about 100 students standing around the perimeter of the Memorial Lounge as the chairs were filled.

On a mention at last week's forum, the issue of lack of racial equality at BYU became the discussed topic.

Blam McCurdy, a sophomore English from Pocatello, Idaho, stated that BYU was afflicted with a "business mentality," the philosophy that a student is in school to prepare for an occupation and not necessarily to learn to think. "We need to have a living student body," he said.

BYU president Ken Christensen disagreed that intellectual life was dead at BYU. He can find at "BYU exactly what you want to find" and added that "we have teachers that speak to us. The problem is us," he said.

The student body leader said that the reason black athletes aren't at BYU was that, to his understanding, BYU recruiters tell black athletic prospects the social situation at the school and "none have been ready to have a non-racial life." He felt that if they applied they would be accepted because the Admissions Office really doesn't know a student's race.

Dinner Scheduled

Couples may dine before the Homecoming dance Friday night at the Skyroom of the Wilkinson Center. Reservations for the dinner, which will be from 8 to 9 p.m., may be made at the Information Desk of the Wilkinson Center. Cost is $6 per couple.

Water Polo Season Bright, Cats Eye NCAA

The 1969 version of the BYU Water Polo team is impressive! Impressive, indeed! The Cats are improving with each game and their opponents are the victims of this tenacity.

BYU's Watermen put down the University of Utah 12-5 and Idaho State 25-12 before being ambushed by the U of U 10-9 in Salt Lake last Thursday.

The Cougars were caught completely off guard by the Utes in the new Redskin swimming complex recently completed this year. The pool is much shallower than most water polo pools, three feet, and the distraction bothered the Cougar polo-men all evening.

Eric Carson, an indoor All-American from his high school days, leads the talent-laden Cougars with a six goal per game scoring average. He is followed by the net ripping antics of Rheinhard Funck with seven goals, Chuck Grant with seven, Paul Colce with four, Lloyd Pettigrew with four, and Lyn Williams with two goals in the first three games of the season. All six of the starting men have scored this season and account for 43 of the 46 goals poured in by the Cougars.

Offense is not the only lauded portion of the game. Defense is stressed and played keenly by the Cats as is indicative of their first two victories. They held the usually explosive Utes to only five goals and the Bengals of ISU to only two first half goals before the second team was put in for the whole second half.

Greg Earnshaw, a first year Cougar goalie, is the key to the fine defensive play by the Cats. He has an average of about 10 saves per game and actually intimidates the opposing offense into committing costly mistakes.

BYU plays today in Pocatello against Idaho State. They will again face the U of U in Salt Lake on November 5. These two meets will be followed by a November 6 meet with Santa Barbara, one of the better water polo teams in California, and a November 13 home meet with the U of U. If all is well, the NCAA tournament in Long Beach is the next stop.

Sportswomen Win

Sara Sue Bozich scored on a five-yard run around left end with 15 seconds remaining to give Sportswomen a thrilling 26-21 win over Chi Triellas in yesterday's Powder Puff football game which ended in pandemonium for the winners and tears for the losers.

The winning touchdown was set up on a long kickoff return by Nancy Boice following a Chi Tri score by Shannon Merrill which gave her team a temporary 21-19 lead with 36 seconds left.

Chi Tri led at half, 14-13, and it looked like that was enough to win as the second half was a rugged defensive battle—until the final minute.

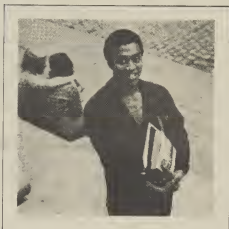

With less than a minute Sportswomen went ahead, 26-21, only to have Chi Tri grab back lead. The long runback then set up the winning play and point.

The win gives Sportswomen a second straight win and an advantage in the grudge game Chi Tri.

Aggressive play and clever handling excited a large crowd gathered on the quad to cheer the teams which had spent weeks practicing together working on plays.

Winning coaches were Parry and Bill Young while Jones and Steve Peterson guided the losers.

I'M GOING TO HAVE A BAD DAY. AND SURE ENOUGH I HAVE A BAD DAY.

SOMETIMES I WAKE UP THINKING
I'M GOING TO HAVE A GOOD DAY.
BUT IT ALWAYS TURNS OUT TO BE A BAD DAY.

HOW COME I NEVER WAKE UP THINKING
I'M GOING TO HAVE A GOOD DAY,
AND THEN REALLY HAVE A GOOD DAY?
OR
